

DOES YOUR CLIENT NEED A COURT INTERPRETER?

The Maryland Judiciary provides court interpreters at no cost for individuals who are parties or witnesses in civil, criminal, and juvenile proceedings. Remember that an interpreter works with the spoken word, whereas a translator works with the written word.

- Only court-appointed interpreters can serve as official interpreters in the courtroom.
- Attorneys or their clients' families or friends cannot serve as official court interpreters.
- Court interpreters cannot be used for any other services or activities other than interpreting and sight translating.
- They should fill out a Request for Spoken Language Interpreter \(Form CC-DC41\) available at the court's information desk or online at: www.mdcourts.gov

HOW TO REQUEST A COURT INTERPRETER

- A Limited English Proficient person (LEP) or their attorney should request an interpreter 30 days before the court date. See Maryland Rule 16-819.
- They should fill out a Request for Spoken Language Interpreter \(Form CC-DC41\) available at the court's information desk or online at: www.mdcourts.gov

DO

- Slow your normal rate of speech when addressing the court to allow the interpreter to interpret simultaneously for the benefit of the LEP party.
- Speak directly in the first person to the LEP party requiring the interpreter. Don't say: "Ask him if he understands..."
- Speak in segments when addressing the LEP party and pause to allow the interpreter to interpret during the pause.
- Use simple legal language and avoid asking compound questions.

IMPORTANT:

Parties or their attorneys are required to notify the Clerk's Office if they no longer need an interpreter. If they do not notify the court or do not come to court for a scheduled hearing, the judge may assess the interpreter costs to them.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- The court interpreter may ask the attorney's permission to talk with the LEP speaker before the hearing begins to make sure they understand each other.
- Interpreters may use special equipment in the courtroom. They will briefly explain to the LEP speaker how it works.
- The interpreter will repeat to the attorney, in English, all statements that have been made to the LEP speaker to avoid the appearance of side conversations.
- It is frequently expected that court interpreters will briefly interpret for attorney-client conversations immediately preceding and following courtroom hearings.
- The court interpreter will interpret simultaneously when the judge addresses the attorneys or jurors and when the attorneys address the court.

- If you are an attorney, representing a party in court, and have a court interpreter assigned to your case, please:

DON'T

- Don't ask the interpreter to "explain the proceedings" to the LEP party.
- Don't use acronyms or legal jargon that may present a challenge for the interpreter. Fully state the name for which the acronym stands.
- Don't ask the interpreter to participate in any other activities other than interpreting for the LEP individual.
- Don't use the courtroom interpreter for lengthy interviews and follow-up conversations with your client outside the courtroom unless it is authorized by the court.

DOES YOUR CLIENT NEED AN INTERPRETER TO COMMUNICATE WITH COURT STAFF OUTSIDE THE COURTRoom?

- The Maryland Judiciary offers telephone interpretation services at the court Clerk's Office. The Clerk's Office has I-Speak cards, Maryland Judiciary Language Cards, and CTS Language Link Posters that help LEP individuals to identify the language they speak. The court employee will arrange for an interpreter to assist the LEP individual by phone. These services are paid for by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

HOW ARE COURT INTERPRETERS APPOINTED?

- The Maryland Judiciary maintains a Court Interpreter Registry. The court staff will make arrangements for a court interpreter selected from the Registry to be present during your hearing. The interpreters listed on the Registry have passed a series of examinations and have attended court interpreter training.
