

Lorien Castelle

Lorien Castelle has a Bachelors of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies Concentration in Women Studies, Comparative Religion and Art History, State University of New York, College at Oneonta, 1998

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

New York State Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NYSCADV) September 1998- Present

Director of Prevention Programming and Western Regional Operations October 2002 – Present

As Director of Western Regional Operations:

Provides training, technical assistance and coaching to domestic violence programs, community partners and state domestic coalitions across the country on best practices and programming, community mobilizing, and organizational development, including: executive training and coaching on management, supervision and leadership development, grant writing and fund raising, staff retention, board development, succession planning and managing transitions.

Develops and maintains relationships with allied organizations whose primary focus is underserved communities.

Provides and coordinates a variety of local, regional, and statewide training and events for domestic violence program staff and allied professionals to ensure a unified, statewide voice among membership and constituents.

Designs and implements training and programming, including: Coaching Boys Into Men, School Nurse Engagement for the Prevention of Teen Dating Violence, Expert Witness Testimony Project and a three-day Principles for Practice.