

Commonwealth of Puerto Rico
General Court of Justice
Office of Court Administration
Office of Education and Community Relations

We will determine if these sentences are Myths or Realities.

1. The Judicial Branch of Puerto Rico is the branch in charge of initiating a criminal case against a defendant when it is understood that a person has committed a crime.  Myth  Reality
2. A judge and a bailiff are employees of the Judicial Branch, while a prosecutor and a police officer are employees of the Executive Branch.  Myth  Reality
3. The Judicial Branch is composed of the Department of Justice, the Supreme Court, and the Office of Court Administration.  Myth  Reality
4. The Court of First Instance has superior and municipal judges.  Myth  Reality
5. The Judicial Branch offers free mediation services in its three judicial regions.  Myth  Reality
6. The cases of minors are confidential and are addressed in the courts under a special process which is not considered criminal.  Myth  Reality

For the youth dialogue